IN THE SPOTLIGHT- THE ENGRAVER'S GALLERY

The Engraver's Gallery started in the 1980's in Downtown Oceanside and was called "Awards, Costumes, and Magic." Over the years, the business went through various name changes and owners. In 2014, the company was sold to Andy and his wife Rachelle, who moved the company to a new location and implemented many changes to improve productivity.

The Engraver's Gallery employs exceptionally talented people who provide the highest-quality products for your most memorable occasions. They believe that recognition of those people most important to you is essential work and strive to provide exceptional service at a reasonable price.

The Engraver's Gallery, now located in the Roymar 76 Industrial Park, provides awards, signage solutions, nametags, keepsakes, and personalized gifts for the military and local communities.

The Engraver's Gallery is at 3310 Via de la Valle, Unit B. To see samples of their work, visit their Facebook page @theendgraversgallery. www.teg505.com
